2. Zack Z, Brian K., Nick S. and Eric L. reported their expected absence in advance and are therefore excused.

PURSER'S REPORT: Purser Brian Kurzik was absent. Skipper reported that we have received the check from Shiloh.

TRIP REPORTS:

1. Brian L. – USMMA - The food was rated as the worst in the nation, the schedule is hectic. Search under USMMA on <http://youtube.com> for video of the box in hallway video.

OLD BUSINESS:

1. Catocin: Skipper reported that we've sent in the Catocin reservation on time, and our registration was received. We have been guaranteed bunk space.
2. Ball caps: We still have a few ball caps left at $20. See Skipper.
3. Polo shirts: Shirts are ready to be ordered and purser is checking that all payments have been made.
4. Turkey cookoff: No one is available to attend the Troop 25 turkey cookoff this weekend.
5. The tent roof has been taken to Mrs. Klinedinst for repair.
6. Ship 25 Quarterdeck Training Weekend: 10-12 November, $15 due for food, gas, and activity fee. Plan is to meet at 0800 that Saturday at Kyle B's home and depart from there.
7. First Nighter: Scheduled for Monday, 13 November.
 - a. Recruiting is really important. Matt Emery is working on the school announcement.
 - b. Refreshments were decided: Chips, soda, pretzels, cookies and candy for prizes. Matt Emery will handle this.
 - c. Suggestions for stations and those running them:
 - Nick S. - knots
 - Dylan H. - Relative Bearings
 - Sam & Skipper - model boats
 - Adrian - Life ring toss
 - Matt E. – Refreshments
8. Every member is expected to bring at least one new friend or prospect to the First Nighter.

NEW BUSINESS: None

UPCOMING EVENTS:

1. Long cruise: Last year the ship went south. This year it will go north to Nova Scotia, with several stops along the way. For those people who cannot sail the entire way to Nova Scotia and back, there will be interim ports-of-call where crew can join or depart. $100.00 non-refundable deposits will be due by January 1, 2007.

REMINDERS:

Check with the Skipper for advancement standings.

CLOSING: Skipper shared his Civil War Reenactment materials with the ship.

The meeting concluded promptly at 2030.

The next regular weekly meeting will be next Monday, November 6 at Garrod Hydraulics. The next Quarterdeck/Parents' Committee Meeting will be Monday, November 6 at Garrod Hydraulics.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Dylan Stein, Yeoman
